Re: United States v. Michelle Falsetta
07 Cr. 1232 (WHP)

Dear Judge Pauley:

I write on behalf of my client, Michelle Falsetta, to respectfully request that the Court set a control date of one month from now for a plea in her case. Upon conferring with Your Honor's Deputy, the parties would expect to go to Magistrate's Court for the plea before that time. I have also conferred with Assistant United States Attorney Marissa Molé, who consents to this request on behalf of the Government.

On May 20, 2008, Your Honor adjourned the next conference scheduled in Ms. Falsetta's case until May 30, 2008 at 2:15 p.m. Unfortunately, I will be out of town that day for a conference. The defense therefore requests that we be given some additional time to do the plea in Magistrate's Court. The parties also respectfully request an exclusion of time under the Speedy Trial Act until the control date. Ms. Falsetta's need for additional time to discuss her case with counsel serves the interests of justice and outweighs the needs of the defendant and the public in a speedy trial.

Respectfully submitted,

Fiona Doherty
